LIFEBOAT OF SHIP LOOMIS FOUND TELLS OF DISASTER

Twenty days after the Standard Oil tanker George Loomis of this city carrying eighteen bay cities sailormen, vanished from the face of the sea "without a trace" and empty lifeboat, giving evidence that some of the tanker's men had tried to reach land, was found six miles off Shelter Cove Saturday by the Steamer Carlos. The Carlos arrived at Aberdeen, Wash., yesterday with the news.

The lifeboat, which may be all the testimony that will ever be discovered of the fate of the George Loomis, confirmed the fears of the Standard Oil officials and shipping men around the bay that the vessel and her men, under Captain E. E. Lapchis of Berkeley were lost in the late December gales off the Oregon coast.

The lifeboat was washed to the gunwales. A sea anchor had been constructed and made fast to her and in the bottom of the little craft was a soiled, torn and stained code book. No oars or gear were found in the boat and no indication given of the fate of the occupants who are believed to have abandoned the tanker when she foundered.

The George Loomis left here December 19 for Coos Bay with a cargo of distillate and gasoline. She was last seen by the Steamer Washenaw on December 22, racing before a northeast gale, but displaying no signals of distress. On December 25 the Standard Oil officials sent an appeal for help and the vessels of the Thirteenth naval district and the Standard Oil coast-wise vessels were ordered to search for her. Five days ago, heavy patches of oil were reported off Coos Bay bar.

HENRY MATSON WILL BE ON HAND THIS EVENING

Henry Matson is expected to be on hand at the Welcome Home entertainment, which is to be given this evening by Onetah Tribe of Redmen, in honor of the boys who have returned home from "over there." Henry is in Letterman general hospital at the Pres'dio, and while he is not exactly well yet he is almost as strong as ever and looks fine.

Armenian Relief

This is campaign week for the relief of the Armenians—Much money has been given to stricken people in Western Europe but very little to those who were almost destroyed by the Turks. These people are pleading for assistance. HELP THEM.

BLAKE MAY CLOSE CITY UP TIGHT TO COMPEL OBEDIENCE TO RULES LAID DOWN BY BOARD

Health Commissioner Charles R. Blake is somewhat riled over what he considers is an infringement and presumption on good nature and his ire is directed toward the saloons, first and foremost, for allowing large numbers of people to congregate in their places of business, in direct opposition to his request that crowds be kept out of such places.

The doctor intimated this forenoon that if this practice continued he is going to close up every saloon in town regardless of what their friends on the council or elsewhere may say or do.

Another source of complaint, according to the doctor, are the lodges with their dances and banquets. "What is the use of compelling people to wear masks on the streets," he inquires, "if the next minute they go to some lodge room, take off their masks and mix with a hundred or more people; and if they do not mix in the lodge room without masks they repair to the banquet room, where they unmask and proceed to sit an hour or two eating and talking, all of which is contrary to the ideas of the health department concerning the best methods of stamping out the plague."

Dr. Blake is inclined to get along without inconveniencing the people, but he expects prompt and implicit obedience from each and everyone, not because he orders it but because he desires to make the work of stamping out the epidemic as short as possible. If all will cooperate without evasion, there will be nothing to the work of getting rid of the disease, so far as we here are concerned.

The health authorities at the present time have no intention of closing churches, schools or picture shows. So far as the churches are concerned they are not likely to be molested now or later, but it may be that the schools and picture shows will be closed later in the week. That is to be determined when the reports are all in from the doctors today and tomorrow. The lodges will be permitted to go ahead with their work if they will use due precaution in regard to wearing masks, but they will be compelled to stop the banquets and dances.

YOUNG ELOPERS ARRESTED IN OAKLAND COLE IS HEAD OF BIG BANK ACROSS THE BAY

The youthful romance of Mildred Thayer, 16 years old, of Bay View Park, and Russel May, a marine from Mare Island was cut short by the police in Oakland, when the young couple, who had vainly attempted to obtain a marriage license, were arrested on complaint of the girl's mother.

The girl left her home Saturday and met her lover.

May is being held by the police pending an investigation and the girl was taken to the detention home to wait the arrival of her mother, who will take her home today.

ILL WITH THE GRIPPE

City Clerk A. C. Faris is sick again with the gripple. It is said to be a light attack.

W. K. Cole, president of the Bank of Richmond and very prominently identified with other banking and financial institutions of this state for the last fifteen years, yesterday was elected president of the Western Mortgage & Guaranty Company of San Francisco, vice R. N. Burgess, Cole, who at present is interested in several California banks proposes to give his active attention to the development of company's business, which argues well for the company's future. The company proposes to extend the scope of its operations so as to include the dealing in municipal bonds and other high-grade securities.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders yesterday the outgoing president submitted a report for the year, showing an increase in the company's capital and surplus of $154,433.59, making the present combined capital and surplus $747,961.09.

Immediately following the stockholders' meeting the directors met and organized by electing the following: W. K. Cole, president; H. T. Scott, first vice president; H. C. Breeden, second vice president; C. F. Gorman, third vice president; M. J. Simon, secretary.

BUILDING PERMIT ISSUED

A building permit has been granted to the Richmond school board to erect a one-story brick building on Fifth street, between Pennsylvania and Lucas avenues to cost $11,560. The contractor is C. Overa. This is the new addition to the Peres school that has been planned for some time.

W. D. JOHNSTON DIED

The body of W. D. Johnston who passed away at the Humboldt apartments in this city this morning will be shipped to Santa Rosa for burial by the Smallwood Undertaking Company. He was 28 years of age and is survived by a wife.

RICHMOND BOY REPORTED AS MISSING IS KILLED

Adolph C. Bauer, of this city, who was previously reported missing in action is now reported killed in action, according to a message just received from the War Department by his mother, Mrs. Theresa Bauer of 35 Eleventh street.

The exact date of young Bauer's death and the manner in which he was killed are not known, but he met his fate on the field of battle during the second week in August, 1918, from the 6th to the 13th, while fighting in the Verdun-Meuse region.

Bauer, who was 24 years old, was reared and educated in Richmond, and prior to going into the service was employed by the Standard Oil Company. He left here for Camp Lewis, November 5, 1917, where he remained several months, finishing training at Camp Green, N. C., and Camp Mills. He arrived in France in May, 1918 and for a while was on military police duty later in the commissary department and finally became a private in Company E, 47th Infantry.

Bauer was in several battles during the summer. His last letter home was under date of August 5. He said he had been too busy to write much, and that being on the firing line he had to write lying down. His father, Adolph C. Bauer, Sr., died April 13, 1918.

LEGISLATURE VOTES STATE TO LINE UP WITH DRYS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 14.—California is today numbered among the states which have ratified the Shepard prohibition amendment to the federal constitution.

National banishment of liquor was brought one step nearer, when the Assembly, following similar action by the Senate, last night ratified the amendment by a vote of 48 to 28.

The wets have not quit yet, however, although the vote was decisive the forlorn hope struggle is to continue a while. W. E. Calahan changed his vote to "aye" and gave notice of a motion for reconsideration.

One S. F. Man Votes Dry
Of the thirteen assemblymen from San Francisco, Nick Prendergast was the only member of the delegation to vote for the amendment. The vote came after an all day fight during which it was never doubted for a moment that the drys were in complete control. The vote in response to the roll call was 47 to 29, but was changed to 48 to 28 when Calahan made the technical change.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION LAYS PLANS TO HELP FIGHT PRESENT INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

The Merchants' Association held their regular weekly meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Tenth street and decided to take a hand in suppressing the present influenza epidemic. The merchants argued that they are more interested in general health of the community than any other factor in the city; that epidemics such as we have been passing through since the influenza came to the Pacific Coast, not only disrupts their business, but causes them great loss through the inability of their customers to meet current obligations and of course merchants are human and subject to illness and death the same as other people.

The general feeling of the members present at the meeting last night was that Richmond should have a hospital to take care of the present necessities and they are going to the limit to bring about that end. They are going to call a mass meeting for probably Thursday night to discuss the proposition in an intelligent way and to devise ways and means to install a suitable hospital where people can receive the proper care.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—More than 1000 delegates, representing practically every international union and central labor organization in the country attended the National Labor Congress here today, which was called by the International Workers' Defense League to adopt definite plans for obtaining new trials for Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, now serving life terms for murder in connection with the San Francisco preparedness parade bomb outrage on July 22, 1916.

That the radical labor element was well represented was evident by the fact that every mention of a general strike to enforce the demand for new trials for the convicted men was enthusiastically cheered.

The meeting began with a row over the election of a presiding officer, in the course of which one delegate was ejected from the hall.

MRS. DELLA MARTHUR FUNERAL AND BURIAL

The funeral of Mrs. Della McArthur who died in Rodeo last night will be buried in Sunset View Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. She is survived by a husband and two little children.

MRS. MOORE'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. Charles D. Moore who died at her home in San Pablo yesterday will be held from the Smallwood undertaking parlors Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. She is survived by a husband and three small children, the youngest being a babe of five weeks.

MRS. WESTOVER FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Westover who died at her home on Alvarado avenue Sunday, will be held from the Smallwood undertaking parlors tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock. The services will be private and interment in Sunset View.

ceive the proper care. Whether this institution is to be permanent or temporary depends on the ideas of those having the matter in hand, but for the present, at least the chief idea is speed—to provide adequate facilities for caring for the sick in the shortest possible time.

The following committee was appointed by Chairman A. C. Burdick to meet with like committees from the city council, Red Cross and other organization to devise ways and means: Louis Garfinkle, Fred Newsom, R. G. Jones, W. S. McRacken, D. Isenberg and J. B. Silveria. Several locations were talked of for the hospital, among which were the old Wall City Hall and the Randall hotel building at Cutting Boulevard and Pullman avenue.

Committees for the new year will be selected by the following committee which is to act in an advisory way to the president: Otto Paulsen, A. S. Forbes, W. S. McRacken, Louis Garfinkle, Chas. Pulee and E. C. Crane. This committee will foregather at Burdick's store Thursday evening for the purpose of naming those who will act on the various standing committees for the coming year.

LOW DEATH RATE ATTENDS PLAGUE IN THIS CITY

Forty-three new cases of influenza with one doctor yet to be heard from, have been reported into the health department for the past twenty-four hours up to 3 o'clock this afternoon. Deaths reported during the same time are two, according to the same source of information.

It appears from the above that while the disease is attacking a large number of people, still the death rate is not far above normal.

The health department and the Merchants' Association are issuing a circular today in which they admonish everybody to remain at home, act sensible, take plenty of rest and assist in stamping out the epidemic. The keynote of the circular is to avoid crowds and wear a mask. When in doubt, call a doctor.

ALFRED PILLOW HOME

Alfred Pillow, who has been with a hospital corps during the late war, was home visiting his brother yesterday. He is stationed at the present time at the Presidio.

WILL INFORM COUNTRY AND ENCOURAGE PEOPLE

PARIS, Jan. 14.—President Wilson is considering a speaking tour of the United States when he returns home. It is said that this trip will take him into many of the principal cities and it is possible that he may touch the Pacific Coast.

With Congress out of the way early in March, Mr. Wilson would have an opportunity for such a tour before returning to Europe should he follow his original plan and if his return should be necessary. He would also have time for his proposed trip before the convening of an extraordinary session of Congress should he decide to call one. So far as known, Mr. Wilson has no plans for an extra session but he still holds to his idea of returning to the peace congress, if it is felt his presence is necessary to the success of the league of nations.

The object of his proposed speaking tour would be to inform the country by personal contact of the proceedings at Paris and at same time sound out and encourage public sentiment in support of the peace principles he has enunciated and which he feels have been acclaimed by the masses in Europe.

There are as yet no official announcements of the President's purpose, but some of those close to him suggest such a trip is feasible in view of the fact that it is now certain that the peace congress will still be working on its problems during the summer. Mr. Wilson's friends believe that popular expressions in the United States might support those of England, France and Italy and have great influence on European statesmen.

EAST BAY WATER CO. DECLARES DIVIDEND

HUNTING A LOST PRINCE

IS there to be another lost "Dauphin?" The eldest son of the former crown prince of Germany has disappeared. It is said that monarchist officers have spirited him away and that all efforts of the Ebert government to discover his whereabouts have been in vain, the idea of his abductors being to keep him as a trump card for their future imperialistic games. The lad is 13 years old, and being a minor he can neither abdicate nor renounce his rights, nor can any one else renounce them for him. It is not likely in the case of a revival of the empire that his father or grandfather would be persona non grata to a people willing to live once more under a German imperial government, but the boy who may then be of age to assume a crown might be acceptable to Germans grown tired of the efforts to establish a republican form of government.

The lost prince is never far from source of romance. The infant son of Louis XVI insisted on surviving his death in the guillotine, and reappeared in the hallucinations of a number of people, one of whom was Eleazar Williams of Green Bay Wis. A descendant of another who called himself the Dauphin of France was actually granted a pension by the French senate a dozen years ago.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING

Secretary Baker's request for legislation to permit the recruiting of the regular army, which exists now in skeleton form, makes an issue of the military policy of the United States.

The theory that we should wait to see what the peace agreements may be seems to have plausibility, but in reality lacks it.

The size of our regular army as a constabulary force is not dependent upon the decisions of the peace conference but upon the needs of our borders and distant possessions. No league of nations could police our Mexican border, because no league of nations would be permitted to do that is an American job.

If we are to have a constabulary force it will have little if any relation to our possible international agreements and there is no valid reason why our citizen army, if we were wise enough to adopt the policy of universal service, should be dependent upon international agreements.

We regard universal training as a foundation of national security and of citizenship. We have a right as a nation to adopt our own methods of promoting nationalism in a country in the process of composition. We have a right to promote national security, particularly when we can do so without instituting militarism and without scaring the daylight out of any other nation. We will not scare Canada and if we did scare Mexico a little it might aid to the peace of the world.

Therefore, we have a right to ask that the United States decide its military policy now when Mr. Baker is asking for military legislation. He raises the issue and congress has not only the right but the obligation to determine it as an American issue for American purposes.

American troubles in the war which has been ended successfully came logically out of American ways of thinking and acting with regard to national defense. They were inherent in our way of doing and not of doing things.

If a people will be governed by the ideas which governed in the United States they will have the troubles the United States had. We cannot rely upon the help of Allies who already have been stripped to the waist and are up to their necks in the fighting. If international agreements keep us out of trouble, fine. If they do not and if we do not mend our ways, good night.

We have relied on getting through somehow, but it is a costly fashion and one which no wise nation with all the experience this nation has had would retain. If we said that the government did the very best that could be done with the situation after it had been developed, that was wise in emergency and performed many creditable feats still would have to look for the defects were damaging and dangerous, and find that the very inherent in the faulty public opinion.

There is an opportunity to correct this to make the United States safe without making it beligerent, and that opportunity is presented now when military legislation is needed and when a correct military policy may be declared.

WHERE LIES THE FAULT?

Complaint of failure on the part of the soldiers to receive their pay, in some instances receiving not a penny for as much as eight months, has become so country-wide as to indicate one more absolute breakdown on the part of the War Department, which appears to have scored nothing else since Secretary Baker took over that department. Hundreds of boys arriving in New York before Christmas had not a sou to enliven the holiday season. This condition of affairs is utterly inexcusable.

We were assured some months ago by the officer charged with the duty of paying off the soldiers that reforms would soon be adopted. If they have been it appears that they are for the worst.

The boys in the service have made good in every particular, but it seems absolutely impossible to cite an instance where the War Department, under the paralyzing supervision of Baker has fallen down on its job in the course of the war program, if we can call all its backing and changing of plans a program. Yet Mr. Wilson said Baker was the most efficient manager he had ever met or words to that effect.

INTERNATIONALISM

The great European war has left our country with a wider scope for its industries and commerce—we are on an international basis.

We have got to get onto an international scale of production, the wages are not on an international standard.

Right there comes the trouble. Mr. Gompers says wages must not come down from the world war scale that has been forced on American industry.

Wages in American factories and American standards of living are from one to three hundred per cent above those of foreign countries.

To have internationalism in the near future would be a world cataclysm of an infinite variety of undesirable foreign made brands of conditions and standards of living impossible for an American to accept.

When other nations elevate their working classes to the same plane as America, then alone should we consider a free exchange of products or conditions.

For America to insist upon this as a pre-requisite for admission into a league of nations will be working toward a sound Internationalism.

In the meantime American industries including sugar production, various branches of mineral production and many lines of industry, must be protected from world competition which for cost of production would prohibit us from meeting.

There is a movement on foot among the members of the legislature to do away with the services of Colonel Weinstock. They are going to legislate him out of office, which is about the only way the state will ever be able to get rid of him.

STANDARD OPENS EXPERIMENTAL OIL PLANT

PITTSBURG, Jan. 14. — The Standard Oil Company has a force of men at work at the Hoff Magnesite plant, where machinery and other equipment is being installed for the purpose of opening up some sort of experimental station in connection with the refining of oil. But little could be learned by the Post this week in regard to the extent of investment or nature of the business to be developed yet. It is pleasing to know that the big Standard Oil Company has moved into Pittsburg, bringing with it a force of workmen and guards which give splendid color to the activities in and around the magnesite plant.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney regions, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming trouble while it is only trouble.

SPARKLING PLAY IS AT RICHMOND THEATER TODAY

Jules Raucourt, who has recently completed "La Tosca" with Pauline Frederick, is at the Richmond T. & D. Theatre today. In support of Marguerite Clark in that appealing little star's screen version of "Prunella." This as will be remembered was the last stage vehicle in which Mrs. Clark appeared on the "legitimate stage."

Besides Mr. Raucourt, as the Pierrot, the fast supporting Marguerite Clark in "Prunella" will include Harry Leonel as his servant, Scarpell; Arthur Kennedy as the Gardener's boy, and many other popular screen players.

The Choice of Those Who Know

Manufacturers and leading motor car distributors recommend ZEROLENE. The majority of motorists use ZEROLENE. ZEROLENE reduces wear and gives more power because it keeps its lubricating body at cylinder heat. Gives less carbon because, being refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, it burns clean and goes out with exhaust.

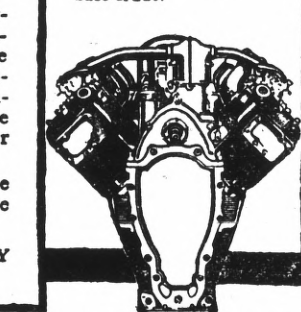

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

At dealers everywhere and Standard Oil Service Stations.

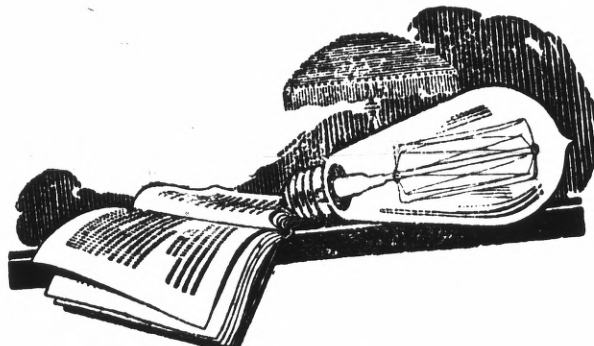

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

Correct Lubrication for the "V" Type Engine

This, the "V" Type of automobile engine, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. ZEROLENE fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

"YOU ARE WONDERFUL!"

Says Mr. M. Robles in praise of FONG WAN, CHINESE HERB SPECIALIST. The following testimonial is convincing.

"Oakland, Cal., Dec. 23, 1918:

"For about three years, I suffered from DYSENTERY. My bowels moved almost continually. I had from ten to twenty-five evacuations daily, which were attended by great pain and by discharges of different colors. After having tried a number of American doctors, I went to the Mexican doctors for three months; then to the Chinese doctors in San Francisco for several weeks but none of them could help me and my condition grew steadily worse. A friend urged me as a last resort, to try the FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST, widely known as the most reliable and successful on the Pacific Coast. I commenced treatment with him on Dec. 2. After the first ten days, I began to improve. Now at the close of the third week's treatment I have gained 12 pounds and my bowels move once a day regularly. Words cannot express my gratitude and I am glad to give these few words of recommendation.

(Signed) MIGUEL ROBLES, 571 5th Street, Oakland."

RED CROSS CHAPTER HOLDS REGULAR BOARD MEETING AND TRANSACTS MUCH NEW BUSINESS

Regular meeting of the board of directors of the Red Cross was held last night at the First National bank. C. J. Cray, J. F. Brooks, Miss W. A. Boone, W. L. Ballenger, W. T. Holmes, Mrs. E. B. Anderson, A. A. Alstrom, G. B. Fredenburg, Levi Boswell, Miss Nora McNeill and Mr. Sedgwick Crowe, field representative; Miss Elizabeth Skeels, supervisor of home service; and Miss Booth, supervisor of salvage and shop from San Francisco headquarters.

A. A. Alstrom was elected to succeed C. M. Brewer as chairman of the membership committee and J. F. Brooks will take Mr. Brewer's place on the executive board. Miss Dorothy Davidson was elected to act as assistant secretary of the local chapter with offices at the Ninth street room.

After the business meeting, Miss Booth made a plea for continued work and more enthusiasm in local salvage and shop. As a matter of conservation as well as of finance this branch of Red Cross work must be continued indefinitely. Miss Booth had with her an interesting exhibit of reconstructed garments made by various Red Cross shop workers.

Miss Skeels explained to some extent how the Red Cross is planning to work with the State Council of Defense in finding employment for returning soldiers, and urged all interested to attend the county meeting at Martinez on Jan. 23, when the educational program for this work will be presented.

Levi Boswell, who has charge of soldier employment for the Richmond chapter was present and some interesting problems were discussed.

Sedgwick Crowe, who is spending today in town conferring with chairman of various Red Cross committees, came from headquarters with a bracing message. The great lesson in humanitarianism which our four years' work in the Red Cross has taught us is not to be wasted, and through continued work the value of thrift and selflessness will make its impression upon the future generation and aid in bringing about the world for which our boys have been giving their lives in France.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK HOLDS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

The regular annual meeting of the First National Bank and the Richmond Savings Bank was held today and all directors were elected. Charles J. Cray, F. E. Beck, L. C. Pontious, W. W. Worden, L. D. Dimm, C. S. Redwick, Warren H. McBryde, H. W. Pulse, V. A. Fenner, W. T. Helms, C. H. Robertson.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Charles J. Cray, president; L. D. Dimm, vice president; L. A. Stevenson, vice president; L. J. Younce, vice president and cashier, First National bank; Fred Caudle, cashier, Richmond Savings Bank.

The reports show the bank to be in flourishing condition with substantial increase in deposits and assets during the past year. An especially interesting report of the war work of the bank since the beginning of the war was presented.

ROUTINE WORK OCCUPIES THE TIME OF CITY LAWMAKERS

Considerable time was spent by the council at the meeting last night in discussing the influenza situation and outside of that nothing was accomplished other than the usual routine business.

McEwan Bros., a corporation owning a small water supply plant south of the Oakland branch of the Santa Fe, and Fred Meyers, owner of the plant supplying certain parts of Pullman district with water, applied to the council last night for a hearing to secure greater water rates from their patrons. The hearing was set for January 28th.

The pipeline to the municipal wharf for supplying water to the city's docks was reported completed and a resolution accepting the work was adopted.

Eddleman was granted a permit to operate a jitney between this city and the county line. He will conduct an auto bus to the South Pacific line at Main street, Albany.

The new building ordinance was laid over for action until some future meeting.

L. H. Barry and L. W. Brooks applied for a license to conduct a pool hall. Referred to the license committee.

In the matter of the arc light at 13th and Lucas, action was deferred for another week.

Hereafter in going through the subway, you will be compelled to confine your speed to ten miles and hour, which reminds us of the speed they had at one time in Sausalito when automobiles were not so numerous as at the present time. Their streets over there were one succession of bumps and deep ruts and holes and it was most difficult for a pedestrian to make his way along them. Their speed limit was four miles an hour, probably out of consideration to the machines of the automobilists. This is doubtless the idea which prompts the council to limit the speed through the tunnel, but they need have no worry for any man with a grain of sense would not think of going through that rough thoroughfare faster than five miles an hour. Why don't the city authorities do a little work on the subway once in a year or so?

CONTRA COSTAN ENDED HIS LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—J. J. Conway, believed to be a laborer from Contra Costa county, ended his life yesterday by jumping from a second-story window of a rooming house at 1134 Mission street. He was taken to the Central Emergency hospital, where he died of a fracture of the skull. He had occupied the room since Jan. 7.

BAD WATER BRINGS ON KIDNEY TROUBLE

Are your kidneys giving out? Back feels lame and achy? Suffer kidney irregularities? Passage painful or too frequent? Hard water is hard on the kidneys.

Alkaline water is especially bad. Give the kidneys help. Help to overcome the effects of bad water.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can depend on Doan's. Richmond people recommend them. Read this Richmond woman's experience:

Mrs. O. F. Barley, 612 Eighth Street, says: "I think poor drinking water weakened my kidneys and caused kidney trouble. I had pains in the small of my back and at night, I was restless and could hardly sleep. I was very nervous and became easily upset. I had headaches and dizzy spells, when everything seemed in a blur. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and one box, produced at the LaMoine Drug Co. cured me."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Barley had. Foster-McBurn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.
